PRINCIPAL'S / SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL REPORT

Our year here at Daufuskie Island Elementary has been one of new beginnings. I began my role as Head Teacher in July of 2000 and mid-year, Nancy Bull replaced Michael Miller as teacher of the upper elementary children. Jim Frazier was employed as an instructional aide. Mid-year, we said good-bye to our retiring food service worker, Ethel Mae Wiley and welcomed Dye Rhodan to prepare and serve our food. Martha Hutton resigned as our bus driver and Lisa Krunkelton assumed this responsibility. We also watched the progress of the new addition to our school building. Through all these changes, our children continued to work well together to grow academically and socially.

We look forward to next year when these new beginnings reward us with even greater academic and social growth for our students!

Terry Skinner, Head Teacher
